ABOUT COLLA VOCE

Colla Voce is the auditioned advanced ensemble at Holly Springs High School, located in Holly Springs, NC. The choir is comprised of 11th and 12th grade students

Colla Voce has established a strong tradition of excellent choral singing through:

- Superior and gold ratings at state and national choral festivals.
- Performances at two state conferences
- Invited and Performed at Carnegie Hall

The students are dedicated musicians who love to sing a variety of choral repertoire together. In addition to participating in many choral festivals and music camps, they are involved in sports, student government, dance, theatre and community service. Many Alumni of Colla Voce have gone on to pursue degrees and successful careers in music.
